Description

The JUMBO Giant tool tray is a practical solution for professionals who want to keep their tools easily accessible and organised while working. The tray is equipped with specific holes for storing hammers, screwdrivers, and other tools, ensuring they are always within reach. It can also hold a small paint bucket, making it ideal for painting tasks. To prevent losing small items like screws and nails, the tool tray features a built-in magnetic compartment, ensuring they stay securely in place during work.
